THROUGH THE YEARS

We, the class of 1964, present this ACADEMY HERALD as a representative of Gould Academy and her students. In the years to come we may turn back the hands of time, if for only a few moments, by turning through the pages of this yearbook.

For the past four years we have worked together as a group. We have worked well together and have enjoyed ourselves, but now we must each take a separate path. If we should meet in years to come, we may reminisce about our failures and successes, but now is a time to look forward and not a time to turn back.

Within the next four months, we shall put to a test the preparatory steps we have taken during the past four years. We must gather up into our hands whatever tools we have earned; the most important of these is our high school education. With these tools, we face the challenging today's world of tomorrow.

As we leave, and the class of 1965 takes our place, and a new class comes in, we pass these thoughts on to the underclassmen:

Next year at this time some of you juniors will be awaiting word from colleges or from business firms to which you have applied. We hope the word you receive will be, "Yes, you are accepted," but for this answer you must work. Your senior year is not a time to give up or even to procrastinate. Perhaps this is the time to apply yourself more than ever before. Strive for goals that are in sight but yet out of reach. Strive until achievement is behind you, and then set your goals even higher.

We hope that the remaining classes at Gould enjoy the same class spirit that our class has attained -- through the years.

This is the end of the beginning rather than the beginning of the end. Although the doors of Gould Academy are closing behind us, never to be opened again, we have great hopes, dreams, and actual plans for the coming years. Only one door is closing behind us, and so many are opening before us. The difficult decision is which of these doors should we enter. Our parents, counselors, and teachers have been attempting to show us which of these doors is the correct one, but now our hand is dropped, and we find ourselves being spoken to as adults, as individuals. We have sometimes ignored advice and now find that we are wrong, but we have also accepted advice that causes us to go astray. We now tightly grasp the appropriate and throw the inappropriate aside.

As the challenge of the world draws nearer and we find the doors of Gould closing behind, these beautifully written words come to mind.

"One day a hush will fall;
the footsteps of us all will echo down the halls and disappear.

And though we sadly start our journeys far apart, a part of every heart will linger here in the hallowed halls of ivy where we've lived and learned to know that through the years we'll see you in the sweet

JUNIOR CLASS

Once upon a time, far away in the heart of Maine's finest greenery, a large group of solid individuals marched through their high school years gaining much fame and attention. The class of 1965 was just ending their third year of fun and games and awaiting that final glorious year as a senior. The class had been more than just brave and bold in all of their undertakings, and now I, as their chosen scribe, will relate to one and all of their fame and glory.

Our chosen leader for the year 1964 was that infamous young man, Les Stevens, who had romped through the Academy as a sophomore, winning much acclaim as a letterman and all-round versatile young man. His assistant (and right-hand man) was no other than Jack Andrews, a well-liked guy who has always been a friend to all. Jack, by the way, captured one of the leads in our theatrical production of BRIGADOON. Our faithful scribe, ever patient with our antics, is a girl of very high scholastic standing, Ethel Kimball. The lucky soul intrusted with our petty earnings of the year was Diana Harris, a girl with an eye for every lad.

1964 was the year that we, as individualists, created a new organ of our class, the Cabinet. Those chosen by the mighty president as best suited for the job were Anne Scribner, Sue Gould, Jim Clifton, Greg Glines, Dave Kibbe, Karen Young, Paula Frankevicz, Bill Boynton, Larry Jacobs, Paul Knight, and, of course, Les Stevens. Although many members of our class have voiced their dismay at such an inner sanctum, they have accomplished a few of their set goals. This new experiment was just that, an experiment, and only time can tell the fate of this group.

Our infamous class has achieved many honors in the field of high scholastic records. We were fortunate, indeed, to find that in the January initiation of the National Honor Society our class of 99 brought forth six worthy members. They were: Bill Boynton, Sue Gould, Ethel Kimball, Anne Scribner, Les Stevens, and Nancy Fox. Each one of these well-rounded individuals does, indeed, deserve a sincere round of applause from all.

In the fall of our junior year, much to everyone's surprise but ours, the class won the skit contest at the G.A.A. Halloween Party. With King Edmond and his trusty knights of the square table, how could we lose! Actually it was a riotous take off on the beloved school-masters of Gould Academy. Poking fun at some of their hidden traits, the ones that they believe we never see, was really wild, but as everyone knows, we all respect and admire them greatly.

In February, as in the fall, our class again romped gleefully to the center of attraction. We won the Winter Carnival! Class participation was high in all events; co-ordination might have been a little low, but, nevertheless, we won! Never before has a class been as disorganized, yet really quite orderly in the history of dear G.A. Our sculpture of the zany Mad Hatter brought us the final victory over all, as well as the finest sculpture of the carnival. Plans were constantly being changed, but as each old idea fell to the new, our hopes of victory soared higher.

Cheering our football and basketball teams on to victory and soothing their sweaty brows after loss, the cheerleaders found that the majority of them were our class members. They included Steffie Buchanan, Ruth MacQuinn, Caren Carswell, Nancy Fox, Ginevra Bean, Louann Brown, and leading them all was peppy Sue Bartash. Their faithful duty towards the team and their coach, Miss Broulliard, are to be admired by many.

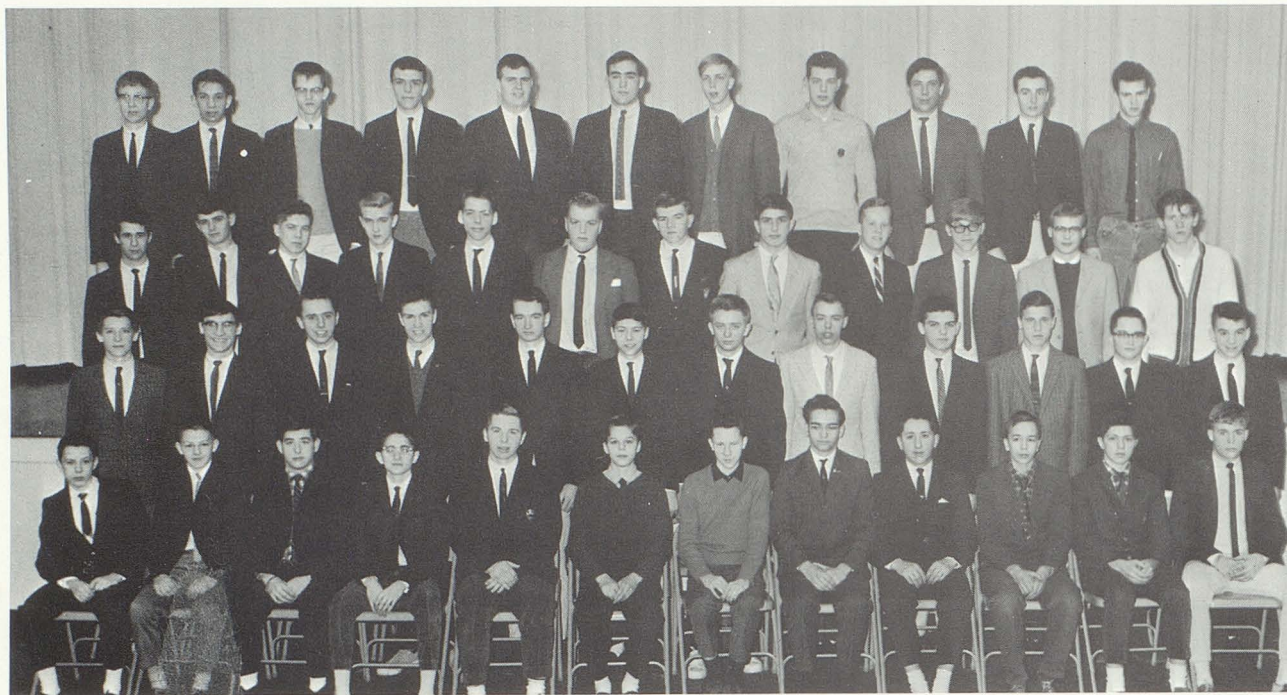

Our class is made up of leaders, followers, and those who just don't care. We're average. Our leaders are many; they're outstanding. We brag about them as any class would. Judy Lapham is president of F.H.A., winning her many friends, hard work, and, we know, the admiration of those who work under her. Tony Chapman, that versatile young man from English 3-A who swears that he'll trip Mr. T. yet, was captain of cross-country, junior representative to S.A.C., and the treasurer of S.A.C. Stars of BRIGADOON include Jim Davis, Jane Look, Sue Bartash, Tim King, Jack Andrews, and Greg Glines. Many more sing and dance their way through the haunting tunes from this famous musical. Bill Boynton, president of Camera Club, is a friendly, familiar face on campus. Ever ready to do his best for the class and the school, he has made his mark here at G.A. For those members in our class that are really musically inclined, All-State provided an exit for their talents. This year the merry little group included Greg Glines, Alan Swan, Anna Thompson, Dave Kibbe, and Jim Davis.

A first, the very first, junior-senior prom will be held this year. For many months the upper classmen have been battling the war of teacher versus student; now we have the answer. Now we all will rejoice with our friends and classmates on that final night.

Our class has achieved many of the goals set before us by our predecessors. The scholastic aims of Gould Academy have strengthened our minds and hearts, forming the will to go on even in the face of defeat. We're brave, yet we know that a year from now we'll either be quaking in our boots or merrily clapping with glee for at last we're out. If I had been able to mention all the wonderful, warm kids that make up my class, the pages would have flown by rapidly. We have faults. What class doesn't? But our faults we see; we aim to correct them as quickly as possible. Our firm foundations of life have been laid; we've got one year left in which to prove that quantity and quality follow hand in hand.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The collegiate and perhaps just a bit notorious class of 1966 elected as their class officers for this school year the following: President -- John Lombard, Vice-President -- Douglas Boynton, Treasurer and Secretary -- Martha Laws. Brian Buck was elected the Student Activity Council representative.

Once again, the progression of a new school year has revealed to us many new personalities along with the old ones with which we are familiar. This year, the class may boast of a competent string of musicians, artists, actors, dancers, athletes, scholars, debaters, singers, comedians and enthusiasts.

"Laurie and Laura," the famous new folk-singing duet on campus, armed with their trusty guitars, have swooned and strummed their way into everyone's heart on numerous occasions. Those besides Laurie and Laura, who really enjoy singing and have the voices to do just that, are people like Rachel Kenniston and Larry Billings, who are all incidentally, members of Chapman Club. Larry, we are proud to say, was among the lucky ones to make All State. Our artists are none other than Jim McBain and Jim Lougee, who have worked diligently on decorations for many weekend activities.

Athletes? Don't be silly. We've got them! What would the boys' ski team have done without Jack Brooks, Sandy Runyon, Daryl Marcy, Don Ferrero, and, last but not least, Steve Moore, our one sophomore competitor in the Easterns this year? Tigers like Mike Chretien and Ray Atwood were certainly no drawback to our football team this year either, not to mention the numerous members of the baseball, basketball, and track teams. Cross-country? You guessed it -- Vaughan Damone! Need I say more?

And as for scholars, what would the world be coming to if Chris Sanborn, Ken Morse, Larry Billings, John Lombard and Martha Laws failed to make the Honor Roll? Our acting, dancing and musical talents come into the scene with the play BRIGADOON, which will be staged in April. Constructive hours have been spent in its development. Among these members are

The Winter Carnival this year may not have been a great success for the sophomores in the final results, with third place, but certainly it was successful in the aspect of class participation and spirit. Much time was spent on snow sculpturing and the students worked with enthusiasm, although handicapped with poor surrounding conditions. There was also a display of posters in Hanscom Hall to arouse even more class patriotism.

Red roses and make-up are not necessary to distinguish the clowns of the class. Remember the old saying "Actions speak louder than words?" Just ask Tim Hutchins, Jim McBain, Daryl Young, Maryvonne Rolfe or Jackie Brooks!

We are somewhat amused to admit that our beloved class has not been successful enough in escaping that new and dreaded disease entitled "Beatlemania." Badly stricken with this disease is Mary Lowell, and Donna Breau seems to be on the critical list also.

Having heard "that" study hall debate a few weeks ago on the subject of women for the presidency, and realizing what a fine job Diane Burrill and Larry Billings did in cleaving to their statement, I'm sure that all of us would be rather reluctant to compete against two real debaters such as these.

It is inevitable that the sophomore class is a vital and active part of campus life. The individualism and favorable qualities found in so many of the members of this class have been the elements responsible for the commendable progress made so far.

We owe many thanks to our advisors, Mr. Owen and Miss Hall, for their guidance in helping us attain our goals, and we also wish to express our sincerest thanks to all those who have helped in making this year a favorable one.

FRESHMAN CLASS

This year the freshmen have chosen for their president George Nickerson; vice-president, David Thurston; secretary, Kay Smith; and treasurer, Joan Frankevicz. The colors for the class are light blue and dark blue. The banner is in the form of a scroll on which there are a picture of the world of knowledge, the words "Class of 1967," and the initials of Gould, G.A.

To get the frosh acquainted with one another, on September 21 there was a "mixer," during which certain people mixed, and certain people did not. Kay Smith, Nancy Chapin, Jean Bartholomew, David Thurston, Ken Remsen, and Gene Tebbets planned what would happen that evening, and the able advisers, Miss McIntyre and Mr. Knight, modified these plans. Other people, such as Leah Swain, Betsy Noyes, and Merton Brown, also helped to make the evening what it was. Dancing, of which there were many varieties, was the item of most importance. Refreshments were served to revitalize everyone.

In the way of sports, this fall eighteen freshmen made the J.V. football team: Mark Walker, Steve Trinward, Daryl Young, Dave Thurston, Ricky Sweetser, Andy Stowell, Robert Remington, Dick Paine, Jerry Nowlin, David Lowell, Alanson Lovejoy, Tom Fadner, Don Dixon, Theron Clough, Howard Chapman, and John Buck, with J. Lord acting as manager. George Nickerson, who received his letter, was on both the J.V. team and the varsity. Only two frosh, Dave Carter and Warren Tibbetts, went out for cross-country. During the winter, George Nickerson, Tom Fadner, David Bouldry, Pete Howard, Lloyd Carver, and Robert Everett all made the J.V. basketball team. There were twelve of the class of '67 out for the man's sport, skiing. They were Dave Carter, Don Dixon, Dick Paine, Robert Remington, Rodney Swain, Gene Tebbets, Dave Thurston, Daryl Young, Steve Trinward, and Mike Tibbetts. In addition to these, two distinguished themselves with the earning of letters, Ken "Buzzard" Remsen and Warren Tibbetts. As Coach Kailey said, we will see a great deal of this year's freshman class in the future. This spring several freshmen are going out for track and baseball. Let's just hope that we do as well in these events as we have in the ones so far. As for girls, it seems that Claudia Samson is the only freshman girl to make the Blue and Gold hockey and basketball teams. However, as an authority told me, "a whole mess of girls" were on the class teams. Three of the six female skiers representing Gould Academy in the state meet were freshmen: Heidi Glines, Eileen Saunders, and Beth Sargent.

In the world of music, the following freshmen are in the Glee Club: Becky Andrews, Claire Bachelder, Wanda Tibbetts, Janet Thomas, Leah Swain, Kathy Phillips, Lorette Patenaude, Dick Paine, Betsy Noyes, Becky Morton, Kathy Kittredge, Pete Howard, Elise Hatch, Elyse Haines, Joan Frankevicz, Nancy Chapin, Peter Burgess, and Jean Bartholomew. In the band Dick Paine comprises the freshman delegate to the trombone section, while Ken Remsen, Leah Swain, and Mark Walker are in the trumpet section. For clarinets, the freshmen boast Vivian Brown, Jean Robertson, Robert Everett, Jean Bartholomew, Julie Favour, and Becky Andrews. Elise Hatch and Betsey Foster provide the flutes. Peter Howard is the only freshman who is in the Chapman Club. As well as being a good singer, Pete plays a piano with a goodly amount of skill.

The freshman weekend was January 17 to 19. On Friday evening, there was a basketball game already scheduled, so we had to supply entertainment only for Saturday: a dance in the William Bingham Gymnasium. Kathy Kittredge was head of the decoration committee; Joan Frankevicz, the refreshment committee. Nancy Chapin was the directress of the skit, a satire dealing with the first day at school for Gould students, in which Steve Trinward Corriveau won a solid round of laughter. The freshmen enjoyed getting the party together, and most everyone who attended enjoyed being there.

As for the Winter Carnival, well, we came in last. Joan Frankevicz, Leah Swain, David Carter, and Warren Tibbetts brought us a first in the snowshoe race; Dick Paine, Claudia Samson, Heidi Glines, and Steve Trinward worked valiantly for us in the obstacle race; while Tom Fadner, Dick Paine, Al Curtis, and J. Lord pulled Leah Swain, Julie Favour, Claudia Samson, and Jean Robertson up the hill in the toboggan races. We had two first place winners in the skiing competition, Lloyd Carver in Class B boys and Wanda Tibbetts in Class A girls. The basketball players, Lloyd Carver, Tom Fadner, George Nickerson, Pete Howard, Dave Bouldry, Robert Everett, David Carter, Howard Chapman, Robert Remington, and Al Curtis, brought us a second place in that event. Most of the frosh worked together to bring in a second place in the sculpturing. Although almost all the freshmen chipped in to help, probably no one did more than Al Curtis, who coordinated the freshmen in the Carnival. In the end it was found that everyone had enjoyed himself, even if we did not exactly come in first.

In regards to the main reason for our being at Gould, academic achievement, this year's freshman class differs hardly from that of any other year. There are those who are doing well . . . and there are those who are not. However, as I just said, this is the norm.

As a whole, this year's freshman class has entered into a variety of activities. However, no one would have done as well as he did or benefited as much if it were not for the untiring, unselfish advisors and faculty who have contributed greatly to our enjoyment of life at Gould.

GEHRING HALL

Entering Gehring Hall, we find the home away from home of fifty eight girls. For some of us graduation is approaching, and we look back on the past years with many happy memories. It has been a wonderful and unforgettable experience for each of us to be a part of this large family, sharing our joys and our sorrows and heartaches with the many wonderful friends we have made.

Now let us take a look at the girls who live in this never quiet dormitory. We shall begin with Third Hall, which is largely comprised of freshmen, sophomores, and some juniors.

On Third Hall Alley we find the studious ones. Louise Delano, Jane Look, and Sue Gould are all trying to concentrate on homework assignments while Debi Moulton, surrounded by pictures of the "Beattles," listens to records. Similarly Elise Hatch is lost in books in her room in the main hall.

Here in the hall one hears the twangs of guitars as Janet Thomas sweetly sings folk songs and roommate, Becky Andrews, dreams of a certain freshman known by all. Next door Dianne Burrill is slaving away on a debate while her roommate, Laurie Fisher, and Laura Sawyer practice for the coming weekend's entertainment. Lyn Booth is listening at the door to the pros.

Across the hall Julie Favour, Betsy Noyes, Kay Smith, and Kathy Phillips are watching all passers-by from the window. One would never guess whom they are watching and discussing.

Next door we can hear Linda Calef telling her roommate all about her favorite record, which has only been playing all day long. Patiently Chris Sanborn is preparing for her daily walk uptown with a certain guy from Viet Nam.

Out in the hall ever tidy Bev Kelley is trotting down to the laundry room with a heavy bag over her shoulder for an afternoon of constructive work in the lower chambers.

Perched on her bed with a big white racing helmet on her head Barrie-Lee Johnson is demonstrating, for the benefit of Jenny Ogsbury and Sarah Burgess, how she took that disastrous blue gate at the Sunday River Skiway last weekend.

Next door Minda Baer and Ruthie MacQuinn are discussing a past vacation spent between Attleboro and Cape Cod. Karen "Cac" Carswell and Peggy Sewell are listening to their roommates with that understanding look. They are thinking there should be less school for happy-go-lucky teenagers and more weekends and vacations.

At the very end of the hall, we find Anne Olmstead dreaming about horses, horses, horses. Her roommate Joy Moore, and Stephanie "Stevie" Buchanan are planning their next move against the enemy, the fun-loving roommates in Holden Hall, where their interest lies.

We now leave Third Hall to enter the Hallowed Halls of Second. On Second Hall we find the home of the juniors and very dignified and sophisticated seniors who are already humming the strains of the long awaited "Pomp and Circumstance." They are awaiting the day when this music will resound throughout the auditorium, and they will be marching in white down the aisles to receive the long awaited and well deserved, we hope, diploma for which they have toiled four long years.

First of all, we approach Sylvia Smith and Candy Kimball's room only to hear the music of Candy's beloved Glenn Gould. We shall long remember Candy and her fine abilities too. Meanwhile, Sylvia is patiently slaving away on a chemistry lab experiment which she shall present to her class the following day.

Next door Sue French, Mary Steidl, and our future Olympian, Laurel DesRoches, are discussing -- right, skiing. They are very kindly showing Di Harris how they are going to bomb the Lazy River in an eggshell next weekend. Track! Here they come!

Sue Bartash and Nancy Hancock in the next room are busily spreading out the goodies from Mrs. Bartash on their beds. The rush will soon be on, for the hungry girls throughout the dorm are aware of the coming feast. How long it will last is doubtful -- you know girls.

Well, the next two rooms are empty of the human element. Oh, here is the hideaway. The gang is playing cards in Terry Cummings and Anna Thompson's room. Jane Totten, Anne Scribner, Wilma "Billi" Philbrook. Terry and Anna are at it again. Fan Fan is the game. The topic of conversation seems to have strayed from the game and turned to last vacation. Looking in are Diana Appleby and Jeanne Thurber.

Next door, in spite of the hum of voices, radios, and record players, we find some more studious girls. Judging by the sign on the door "Do Not Disturb -- This Room is Contaminated With Book Worms," we would guess that the inhabitants are deep in the world of concentration. We had better obey the sign and not disturb Anne Thomas and Betsy Thompson, for it might not be appreciated.

On the opposite side of the hall the "innocent ones" are at it again. Bev Shipp and Adele Davis have just short-sheeted Karen Young's bed. However, Karen doesn't seem to be suffering from itching powder this time. Judging by the sly smiles on their angelic faces they are off to attack another front. Well, here come their helpers in crime, Betsy Crane and Claudia "Sam" Samson. I doubt that they are planning to ride the dumb waiter again or drop water bombs out the windows; therefore, the foursome is probably planning an attack on Third Hall. Life will no longer be peaceful this afternoon.

Well, a prospective candidate for admission is being honored with a tour through the halls of Gehring. I take it predictions have started, for Eleanor Parker, Sue Crane, and Chris Carswell are placing bets. They are quite happy to know that they will not have to compete with her next year. She looks as though she will be a big hit.

Now for the elite Senior Alley. At long last six of the lucky four year seniors have made it. Senior Alley is the ultimate goal of all four year seniors. Journeying into the depths of the alley, we find Patti Eames sitting on the floor outside her room. Patti, per usual, is making ape calls and war whoopies in disgust at her roommate, for within her chambers Janice "Tink" Tinkham is playing Joan Baez records, and Patti can't stand the "noise." Fortunately, Gaye "Farma" Farnsworth is a heavy sleeper, because she is far off in the Land of Nod. Let's peek in. I knew it. Gaye is dreaming up some more pranks to pull; you can tell by the expression on her sleeping countenance. With the aid of her hidden light, Cheryl Smith is reading on the bunk below. Of course, the book is another J. D. Salinger's, Cheryl's idol.

Last but not least, we come to the end of our visit in Gehring Hall with Room C. Within, Tina Corliss is practicing walking sans cast. It always seems better when she runs to the window to see if "he" just went by. Also within Room C I am completing the tour of what you might expect to find any day in Gehring Hall. At this time I would like to thank, on behalf of the girls, the teachers who live here with us. Their patience and kind understanding during the past years have been appreciated. We all have had our times of noisy happiness, quiet depression, and breaking of rules. They have withstood our behavior nobly, riding through the stormy and calm sea of life with us.

To each and everyone whom we have just visited -- best wishes for a happy and fruitful future.

FARNSWORTH AND HOLDEN HALLS

The welcome mat is out at Holden Hall, men's strong-hold of feeble freshmen, sober sophomores, juvenile juniors, and sluggish seniors. Shall we go in? As we enter, we are greeted by Chris Unger, who relates one of his typically "stale" jokes to us. At the same time, the sound of a horn and some lively records tell us Jim McBaine is just down the alley.

Let's take a peek at the notorious downstairs alley. Glancing into one of the rooms, we find Daryl Marcy, hanging from a window with a walkie-talkie in his hands. We soon discover that the other instrument is in the possession of a frenzied blonde in Gehring Hall. Don Ferrero, the Campus Cassanova, seems greatly intrigued with the conversation. Except for these vigorous chaps, the alley seems quite deserted. This, of course, is alarmingly unusual. Perhaps we shall meet more of the alley crew later on.

Going down the front stairs, we are met by an avid schusser, Steve Moore, returning from the ski room, having completed a hard day's work. At the foot of the stairs, we take a sharp left to the darkroom. There we find Bill Boynton and his brother Doug arguing with Rolfe Foxwell. It seems that Rolfe has a revolutionary new method for film processing, but the Boynton brothers don't seem to see "eye-to eye" with this darkroom genius. Coming out of the darkroom, we bump into Jim Lougee, who is about to begin one of his unique drawings in the art room. A commotion from the music room warns us to stay a good distance from Phil Burns and Mose (Tyler Moses) as they rehearse one of their zany routines in preparation for the weekend activities. Leaving the "musicians' paradise," we enter the pool room. Here we find Steve Rumery and J. Merrill Lord indulged in an exasperating game of eight-ball. Rodney Swain, an eager onlooker, seems to be fascinated by this great sport! The smell of roasting tobacco attracts us to a forbidden place known to all as the Butt Room. Peering through the dense smoke screen, we are able to distinguish Dave Putman, Tommy Day, Gordon Manuel, Cecil (John Goodrich), Ray Halperin, and Tim King, each desperately clasping a cigarette, trying to keep nicotine fits at a minimum.

A quick trip up the back stairs brings us to the humble abode of slender Dave Kibbe and good-natured Don LaDieu. We find them discussing basketball. We are practically run down by Dave Wells as he hustles into the room to get in on the conversation. Sneaking a peek into John Pollack's room, we find that John isn't in.

HOLDEN HALL

In the television room we find Bob Pierce intently watching one of those educational programs on the "tube." He informs us that John Pollack stepped out for a few minutes (involuntarily) for a quick dip in Freshman Brook. In the back of the television room, Sandy Runyon, Ray Atwood, and a host of others are trying to see how many boys can be squeezed into the laundry closet -- alive!

Ken Remsen is visiting Dave Bouldry in Room 1. World affairs, campus capers, and girls (?) are just a few of their discussion topics. The library is a scene of general confusion. Paul Knight is endeavoring to complete a mound of homework while Ed Dudley and Alan Howard issue forth with a melancholy melody to the accompaniment of Pete Howard at the piano.

A second flight of stairs takes us to the exclusive second floor (exclusive of freshmen, that is). In Bob Amrein's room, Bob and Tom Hamilton are trying to decide what the Dorm Council can do to make all the boys in the dorm happy. Across the hall, Jim Corriveau, Paul Imhof, and Dave Brewster are wagering on who will win the first basketball game when the season gets rolling. At the end of the upstairs alley we find a very industrious group. Les Stevens is engulfed in a most interesting portion of his favorite subject, American history, while Ken Morse across the hall is preparing to launch a rocket equipped with special cameras to explore Gehring Hall. Strolling up the alley, we pass by Pete Hubbard's room, where Pete and Arthur Hammond are tuning up their guitars for an afternoon of musical pleasure. Meanwhile, across the hall, Jack Andrews is trying to get a bit of rest.

As we enter the main corridor, we encounter a terrible raucous in the washroom. The loud noise is broken only by the rush of water from the shower. Within a few seconds, out charges Don Dixon, having completed a refreshing shower -- with his clothes on!

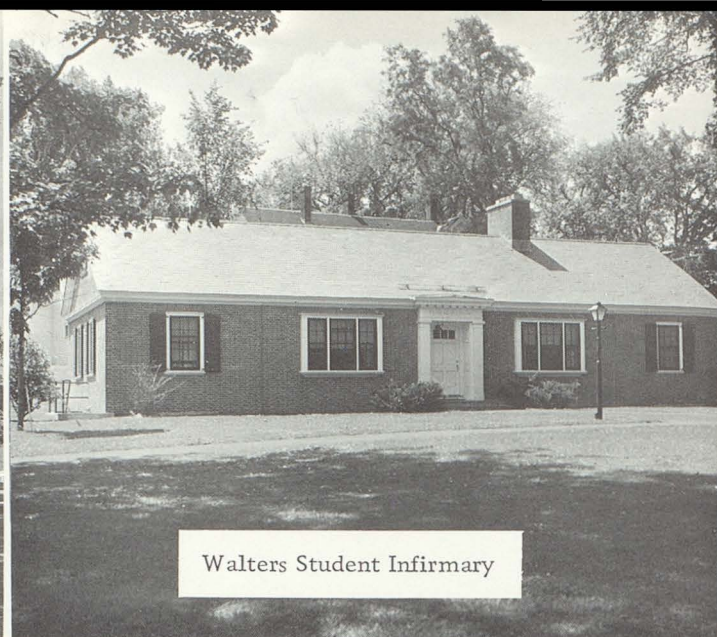

Not far from the washroom dwell Joel Nichols and Bill McCall. They are deeply engrossed in a discussion on skiing and girls. The next room we visit is inhabited by Jim Clifton and Barry Townsend. They are in a hot debate with Doug Miliken and Steve Bean on some unmentionable subject. We are nearly trampled as Jeff Lord and Rocky (Bob Swain) tear by us probably on their way to find new adventure in some hidden spot of the dormitory. In Room 12 we find Phil Martin listening to Jay Chamberlain griping about this, that, and everything else. Phil's roommate is off in some quiet, secluded corner, away from all this confusion, trying to prepare the Boys' Dormitory Notes for the ACAD-DEMY HERALD.

Before closing our annual tour, I would like to express the many thanks to Mr. Emery on behalf of all the boys for his help and understanding throughout this past school year. And, Mr. Emery, maybe you could tell us what boys would be like without a little bit of the devil in them!

STUDENT ACTIVITY COUNCIL

The Student Activity Council is an advisory organization, designed for the purpose of promoting school citizenship and serving as a sounding board for student problems.

The Council consists of one member from each of the four classes and one or two members from every recognized student organization on campus, including one member from each of the dormitories. From this group an executive council is drawn to take care of affairs which could be handled better by a smaller group, acting for the full council except at regular meetings. This council consists of the officers plus three other members chosen by the whole Student Activity Council. This council, set up for the purpose of making decisions after the members have discussed matters with their organizations, proved itself highly successful last year and is carrying on this year's work with a great degree of purpose and achievement.

The officers of the Student Activity Council, 1963-1964, are as follows: president, Pete Hubbard; vice-president, Bob Amrein; secretary, Joanne Runyon; treasurer, Tony Chapman. Working with them on the executive council are Carol Flint, Bill McCall, and Matt Brooks.

Each year a member is selected to represent the Student Activity Council on the Athletic Council. This year's representative elected by the Student Council is Bob Amrein.

During the year in co-operation with the faculty advisors, Miss MacDougall, Mr. Myers, and Mr. Richardson, the members discuss various problems which arise concerning the school and try to meet them as successfully as possible. These include subsidizing money to organizations and functions from the budget, planning week-ends, sponsoring special social activities, training officers for student organizations, supervising school elections, planning the Student Handbook, and choosing the cheerleaders.

As part of the traditional program, the Council has sponsored two important events, Parents' Day, and the Christmas Formal. Both of these were well organized and a tremendous success. Besides these, a special fund-raising, entertaining project was sponsored, the Warren-Miller Ski Film.

In order to organize, promote, and supervise general and special elections, a Student Activity Council committee was selected. This includes Cheryl Smith, Carol Flint, Joanne Runyon, and Ethel Kimball.

The Council is a member of the State and National Associations of Student Activity Councils, sending delegates to regional conventions and to the national convention. Ethel Kimball was chosen as this year's delegate to the national convention to be held in Bangor during the summer.

To keep the interest and to gain opinions and problems of the student body, the Council keeps a suggestion box. These problems or suggestions are discussed and remedied as successfully as possible.

The Council is carrying on an evaluation of the various student organizations, including itself, and of the four classes. This is being conducted by the representatives of the organizations by completing a criterium planned by the Student Activity Council and its advisors. A special critique was formed for the classes, and these will be evaluated for the benefit of the organizations as well as the Council.

The promotion of school spirit and understanding between the faculty and the student body is the main objective of the Student Activity Council. Therefore, it is considered an honor to be a member of this fine organization.

BLUE AND GOLD

Now in its twenty-second year of publication, the Blue and Gold is under the able leadership of this year's co-editors, Sylvia Smith and Richard Jacobs, with Mr. Thompson as faculty advisor.

In this year's issues there have been the usual editorials, senior personals, sports columns, and reports on club work and school activities, but there have been a few changes. In the last two issues the editorials were selected from those which the students entered for competitive judging and there were no word limits on any articles written for these issues.

Thanks is due to the Camera Club for its work in providing pictures for each issue, to Mr. Thompson for his time and effort spent on improving the paper, and to Mr. Vachon, who never fails to provide an interesting Headmaster's Corner. Also, thanks should go to the hard-working typists, to the Citizen office, whose co-operation helps us so much, and, last but not least, to the staff itself for the work involved in writing the articles and in getting the paper ready for publication.

Those who worked long and hard on the paper were rewarded by having this year's issues acclaimed as some of the best ever.

MUSICAL GROUPS

Throughout the past year at Gould the three music groups, under the fine leadership of Mr. Owen, have achieved many satisfying and almost unbelievable feats.

The band members, marching in fine precision in their brilliant blue and gold uniforms, have played at all the home football and basketball games.

On the evening of December 15, 1963 the Band accompanied the Glee Club in presenting the Christmas Concert. The music presented by both groups was "The Gloria" by Vivaldi. The soloists, Charlene Swain and Louise Delano, accompanied by Larry Billings playing the oboe, sang several difficult melodies with a fine result. The hard work finally paid off, and the first official concert in the new William Bingham Hall was a success.

The nights of April 24 and 25, as everyone will recall, were filled with excitement and enchantment. It was on these evenings that the members of each of the music groups fascinated two large audiences by presenting a full length uncut reproduction of the Lerner and Loewe Broadway musical, BRIGADOON. The performances of the Band, Chorus, actors, and actresses were all splendid. The costumes, created by the Future Homemakers of America, and the scenery helped to make this a musical that no one will ever forget.

The Chapman Club gave several lifting assemblies during the school year. Dressed in their brilliant blue and gold choir robes, they did much to make this musical year a big success.

All three musical groups have had members who participated in the All State Festival. A large group of people from our school attended this Festival. Those forming the group were Jim Davis, Dave Kibbe, Alan Swan, Ed Dudley, Peter Howard, Alan Howard, Linda Paine, Carol Flint, Charlene Swain, Anna Thompson, Larry Billings, and Greg Glines.

On June 7th the Baccalaureate Choir and Varsity Glee Club sang several numbers at the commencement exercises.

This completes the 1963-1964 musical activities of Gould Academy. The Chapman Club, Glee Club, Band, and the cast of BRIGADOON wish to thank Mr. Owen for his lasting patience and enthusiastic instruction.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club, under the wise and willing direction of Joel Nichols as President, Bill Boynton as Vice-President, Louise Delano as Secretary, Bev Shipp as Treasurer, and Sarah Burgess, representing the club in the Student Activity Council, undertook a year of activities which certainly kept all members jumping.

In the fall, when it was discovered that the MESDEMOISELLES and the MESSIEURS of the club were scheduled to sponsor a weekend and that funds were rather low, a grand idea was introduced and carried out. This was to have a bottle drive through town. So with Miss Littlefield and Mr. Danforth, our capable and forever insistent advisors, driving two famed "Gould wagons," members took off after school, sectioning the town and combing it thoroughly for any piece of glass that was refundable and willingly donated. Now with money enough to provide good refreshments (cheese, crackers, and dips), a very good dance was put on and enjoyed by all attending.

When the season and spirit of Christmas hit the Gould campus, French Club members certainly weren't left out of the fun-making and carol-singing. With four or five common carols mimeographed out in French, enthusiastic songsters met to rehearse during the week, prelude their annual carolling jaunt about town. Thursday night the whole group, with the help of Louise Delano and Jane Look in leading the jolly chorus, set out and entertained several families in town. This was followed by a wonderful stop at the Vachons' for cocoa and cookies. After everyone was all warmed up and about all talked out, all said good-bye 'til next year.

As everyone knows, the highlight of the year for the French Club and everyone is the French Club Party, held this year in April. The decorations were really wild and interesting: a miniature wine cellar, a crepe paper ceiling representing the French flag, beautiful posters and pictures of France, fishnets, and the Eiffel tower. Refreshments were served and a really good time was had by all.

This just about rounds out the year's activities, and with many special thanks to Miss Littlefield and Mr. Danforth for their wise supervision, we close with hopes for a successful club next year.

ART CLASS

Art -- a skilled performance acquired by experienced study and observation of the world's environment. This is what Gould Academy offers every student attending Gould Academy. Art I and Art II are the two courses offered by Gould under the instruction of Mr. Owen.

Art I consists of the basic learnings of many skills which will eventually be formed into the works of a mature artist. This group begins in the fall with charcoal drawings, clay modeling, plaster, wood and oil designing.

Art II, which is a more advanced continuation of Art I, goes into detail in the crafts of jewelry, pottery, paintings, and sculpturing. Using their imaginative minds, students usually come up with designs of their own creation.

In behalf of the entire student body, I would like to thank the Art classes for their tremendous work and co-operation in making posters for school functions, scenery for the senior plays and for help in BRIGADOON. All these works were thoroughly appreciated.

In late spring the Art class together with the Camera Club will have an exhibition of their works done throughout the past year.

As the year rolls on, I am sure you will join with me in thanking Mr. Owen for his spectacular performance in teaching the students of Art I and Art II the science of Art.

CAMERA CLUB

This year, as in past years, the Camera Club has played an important role as a school organization. Besides its service to the school itself, it has stimulated photographic interests in many students, an interest which can be carried throughout their lives.

The officers of the club were elected in the spring of 1963: President, W. Boynton; vice-president, R. Foxwell; secretary, N. Sargent; treasurer, C. Roberts; Program Chairman, R. Saunders.

The main program consists of meetings held on alternate Wednesdays. These meetings include slides, movies, or talks from which members can get instruction on photography and photographic technique.

This year the Camera Club has kept busy taking pictures of most of Gould's activities. With darkroom facilities in Holden Hall and Hanscom Hall, under the guidance of Gordon Manuel, members can work for the club as well as for themselves.

During this past year the Camera Club has served Gould by providing photographs for the BLUE AND GOLD and the ACADEMY HERALD, and for publicity purposes. Newspapers throughout Maine supplement Gould news with Camera Club photos. Activity prints are also sold to the student body and faculty. These pictures have been of school activities, sports events, and team pictures.

This year members have had the opportunity to develop their interest in photography through instruction classes. In these classes, interested members have been taught the processes of developing and printing, knowledge which they have been able to use in making activity prints, Christmas cards, and personal pictures.

DEBATING CLUB

This year the Debating Club can boast an even larger membership than in preceding years. Under the wise supervision of our coach, Mr. Vinton, we have all enjoyed an exciting and profitable year.

During the opening meetings the returning lettermen, Barry Townsend, Nancy Hancock, Linda Calef, Chris Sanborn, Kenneth Morse, and Diane Burrill, along with other veteran debaters and the recruits, were required to give three-minute speeches having had varying degrees of preparation. These were repeated at the end of the year, and points toward a letter were earned for improvement. Also taking place during the first meeting was our election of officers. This year we proudly added representative to the Student Activity Council to our slate of officers. Those elected are as follows: sharing the responsibility of president -- Barry Townsend and Don La Dieu, Student Activity Council representative -- Nancy Hancock, and secretary -- Diane Burrill.

Because of the club's many new members and their various fields of interest, we decided to conduct confidence-building discussion groups within our own club before branching out to inter-school competition. Topics under discussion included such subjects as the twist, the wheat surplus, taxes, problems of Gould Academy, the Cuban situation, and the pros and cons of a co-educational school. After this good warm-up round of discussions, we progressed to sizzling debates which covered topics of our own choosing.

The month of March found most of us racking our brains for a suitable subject to debate in study hall. We decided to try the resolved: A WOMAN WOULD BE AS CAPABLE AS A MAN IN THE PRESIDENCY. Weeks of hectic research followed. Then the fatal Monday morning was upon us, and four of the gang

-- Paula Frankevicz and John Goodrich as the negative team and Larry Billings and Diane Burrill composing the affirmative side -- summoned their strength and courageously mounted the gallows stairs in William Bingham Gymnasium. The student body and faculty members were asked to serve as judges. The verdict turned in by the student body was overwhelmingly for the negative while the faculty seemed to favor the affirmative.

We of the Debating Club feel that new debating interest and enthusiasm is being generated on campus. We have had many curious visitors during the year, all of whom seem to have received enjoyment and perhaps even profit by the visits. And why shouldn't they? Mr. Vinton has wisely and skillfully guided our program so that it offers both the novice and the expert a challenging frontier.

Win or lose, good debator or bad, we've all had a fun-filled year, and we're all looking forward to next year with great expectations. The club is sorry to be losing spirited Linda Paine, our all-city debate champion and co-president Don La Dieu, and the backbone of the organization, hard-working Barry Townsend. We hope that their debating days will serve them well in future years.

Looking back over the past year, we realize how impossible it would have been to carry on without the tremendous effort and spirit with which Mr. Vinton has supported The Gould Academy Debating Club. In closing I would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere gratitude. Thank you very much, Mr. Vinton.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Although most of the organization presidents on campus are seniors, the Gould Academy Future Homemakers of America's president is a junior, Judy Lapham. The FHA is always trying to create a better and more efficient organization. We, therefore, decided that it would be more helpful if a junior were elected president because she would be able to help the new president next year.

This year the FHAers are working toward projects related to their two objectives: Discovering Myself and My Worth to Others and Launching Good Citizenship Through Homemaking.

The District E Convention was held at Wilton last fall. Cindy Chayer was elected secretary. The chapter is very proud of Cindy and is sure that she will do an excellent job. The speaker at the convention was Dr. Robert York, Dean of Instructions at Gorham State Teachers College.

This fall our chapter composed and published the FHA Newsletter. This Newsletter is distributed throughout the state of Maine.

This year some of the FHAers participated in the local UNICEF drive. Although the annual FHA sponsored Valentine Dance was not held this year, it will be held next year. This fall the chapter collected food for Thanksgiving baskets. Toys were collected and given to the children at Pineland. It has been decided that the chapter will not send a representative to the national convention in Chicago this year. One of the biggest projects of this year is making about 30 costumes for the April production of BRIGADOON.

This year the state convention will be held at Brewer High School. We are very proud of our only state officer, Anne Scribner. Merry York has been chosen as a candidate to run for the state office of 1st vice president.

This year the FHAers are planning a Mother and Daughter Banquet followed by a fashion show consisting of the clothes made by the girls in their home economics classes.

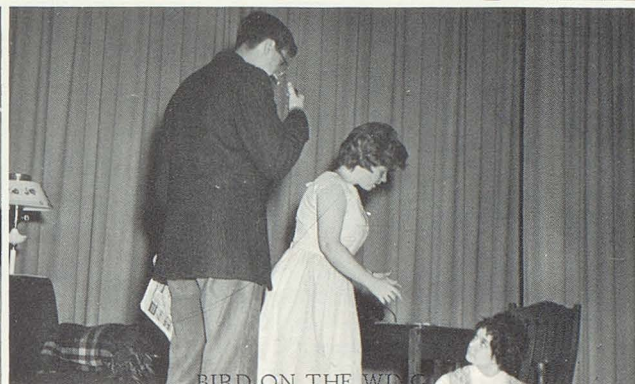

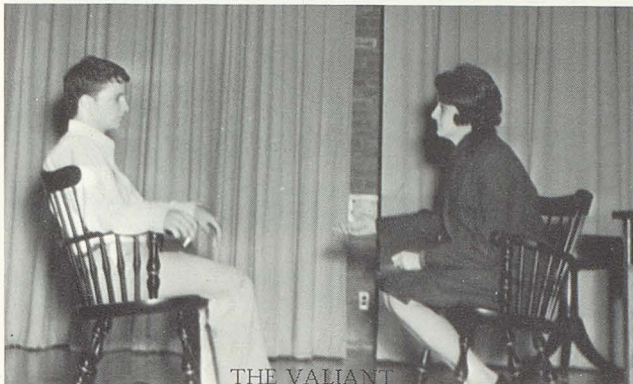

A dramatic step has been taken to acquaint the members with the degree program. These degrees are presented at state convention.

Working to emphasize their over-all goals, the members hold meetings twice a month under the leadership of the executive council consisting of president, Judy Lapham; vice-president, Ellen Brown; treasurer, Rachel Kenniston; secretary, Carlene Jordan; parliamentarian, Sue Bartash; social and recreation chairman, Merry York; public relations chairman, Jane Look; and Student Activity Council representative, Joy Moore.

This year is the second year that the FHA Award will be presented during Class Day. This award is presented to the senior girl who has contributed the most to the chapter.

Many thanks go to Miss Minot, who helped make the year 1963-64 a successful one.

DRAMATICS

How the seniors worked! And the final result, three one-act plays, was met with much applause on Saturday night, February 1. Breaking away from the traditional three-act play, the class of 1964 decided to take advantage of the facilities of the new Bingham Hall and present three entertaining one-act plays.

After a few selections from the band, the lights dim, the curtains slowly part, and before us we have Ann Thomas playing the part of Baleria, a colored maid in "Bird on the Wing." Bev Ship, as Ellie, fifteen and ready for life, catches the audience in her hands seconds later as she rushes by, accidentally knocking Baleria to the floor. But Ellie has greater troubles. She has a date with Oscar Snootzer, a would-be poet. Mr. Vincent (Barry Townsend), her understanding father, controls the crisis when Susan, the older daughter (Adele Davis), warns Ellie that Oscar will not take her to the prom. Mrs. Vincent (Jean Thurber) softens the blow, but it is not until the boy next door, Sonny Roberts (Peter Hubbard), solves the problem that the play ends.

The second play, a more serious drama, was "The Valiant." Warden Holt (Don La Dieu), a compassionate prison official, and Father Daly (Stephen Bean) try to help Josephine Paris (Candy Kimball) solve her problem—is this prisoner her brother? Phil Burns did an excellent job in portraying this character, James Dyke. Dan, the guard, was played by Corey Brown.

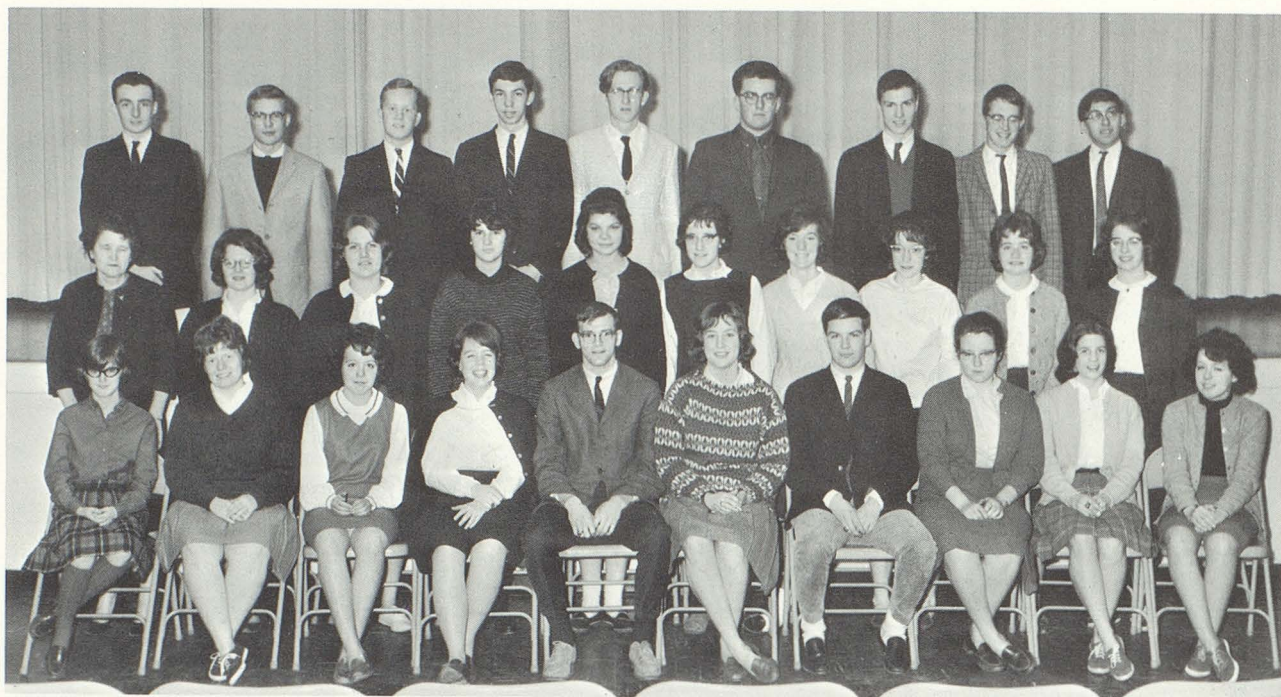

The audience was truly captured by this performance, a hard thing to do with such a serious play.

The tension was broken by the delightful comedy, "Opening Night." Cornelia Otis Skinner (Cindy Freeman) and Alden Blodgett (Bill McCall), her long-suffering husband, try to withstand the trials and tribulations of Corelia's fame. Cheryl Smith played Lila, Cornelia's ever-busy maid. Patti Eames did an excellent job as Buzzie Patterson, Cornelia's best friend. Mrs. Judson (Sue Crane) and Mrs. Palmer (Linda Paine) in New York on a "spree," add to Cornelia's problems on opening night. Patsy, Jean and Thelma, teen-age enthusiasts and autograph-seekers were played by Chris Carswell, Linda Nickerson and Lorraine Eames. Dodie Halliday (Eleanor Parker) and Janice Upham (Sue French) dropped in to add to the problems. Yet Cornelia finds a way out, ending the play with laughter and applause.

The fine results were not without the supervision, help and faith which our fine director, Mr. David Thompson, willingly provided. Paul Vachon, Jeff Lord, Robert Swain, James Clifton, Bob Pierce and Jack Brooks helped with lighting. John Young and Corey Brown sought props. Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. Thompson and Mr. Roderick were the make-up artists.

It was a night which will not be soon forgotten, least of all by the seniors.

LATIN CLUB

Being a new organization this year, the Latin Club has been busy making new plans and ideas. It has been very active throughout the '63-'64 school year, one of its biggest events being the initiation of new members. Old members were robed as gods and goddesses, while new members were dressed in the attire of serfs. There on the stage of the William Bingham Hall a ceremony was performed. To prove ourselves worthy of acceptance, we, the new members, endured tests of merit. We then heard words of wisdom from the "gods" and "goddesses." Following this, we took an oath of allegiance and received our diplomas of acceptance.

March 6 marked the date of the Roman Banquet. Again, the togas were adorned as old and new members robed to congregate in the girls' gym, where all the entertainment took place. Entertainment? Yes, I'm sure even the slaves (new members) who were auctioned at handsome prices will agree that March 6 was one of the greatest events of the year. After the auction, slaves served the feast, including olives, "wine," grapes, cheese, apples, cookies, celery and fried chicken! Laurie Fisher provided entertainment with her guitar while slaves were pre-occupied with orders from their masters. Later, the slaves participated in contests, one of these being a "chariot" race. Many bruised knees and roaring laughs later, the slaves sang the school anthem in English. As the "Romans" removed their togas for another year, I doubt if either the masters or the slaves had any complaints.

Although this club is new, it is far from small. Including its newer members, there are 46 in all. The newer members are Bev Shipp, Doug Boynton, Andrew Buck, Betsy Crane, Sue Howe, Becky Kenniston,

The members of the Latin Club composed a constitution which all are to follow. This important document outlines the jobs and duties of the specific officers which are to be faithfully carried out. The constitution also states the qualifications one needs in order to become a member. As their motto, the club chose "Facta, Non Verba" (Deeds, Not words). The club colors are gold and crimson. Our organization is the only one on campus that is a member of the Junior Classical League, a national organization; it is also a member of the Maine branch.

Since the Latin Club is a new organization at Gould Academy, it must prove itself worthy during '63-'64 to become a part of SAC. Louise Delano, the representative whom we chose, is to appear before SAC during May.

The '63-'64 officers that were elected are Adele Davis, president; Paul Imhof, vice-president; Steve Bean, secretary; and Sue Gould, treasurer. Having Miss McIntyre as the advisor, the Latin Club formed an Olympian Council composed of the following: Adele Davis, Paul Imhof, Steve Bean, Sue Gould, Diane Burrill, John Lombard, and Greg Howe.

This June we will be losing many good officers and members, but we hope that next year we shall have equally fine ones to fill their places to make the coming year as successful as '63-'64.

BIOLOGY CLUB

Newly organized last year, the Gould Academy Biology Club already claims a prominent place among campus activities. Despite the usual confusion encountered in early stages, this club has been successful in introducing its members to biological fields such as botany, zoology, and topology. Its membership has increased steadily even among students not including biology in their regular curriculums.

At the first few meetings this year, last year's officers took charge until new representatives were elected. The names and positions of the latter were as follows: Doug Bane, president; Linda Paine, vice-president; Mary Steidel, secretary; Jack Brooks, treasurer; Ray Halperin, S.A.C. representative. They invariably sparked the projects undertaken and assisted both the faculty advisor, Mr. Brewster, and their fellow members.

Meetings were usually held on the third Thursday of every month. Various members were allowed to present film strips and other items of interest. Even possible research projects were considered by individual members. Then, D. Bane, P. Martin, B. Clemons, J. Brooks, and M. Jenkins discussed their value with the group. Due to a notable lack of funds, each member cheerfully agreed to the payment of dues. These amounted to 10¢ collected from every member, present or not. In this way the club might be able to sponsor a weekend sometime in the late spring and make necessary field trips.

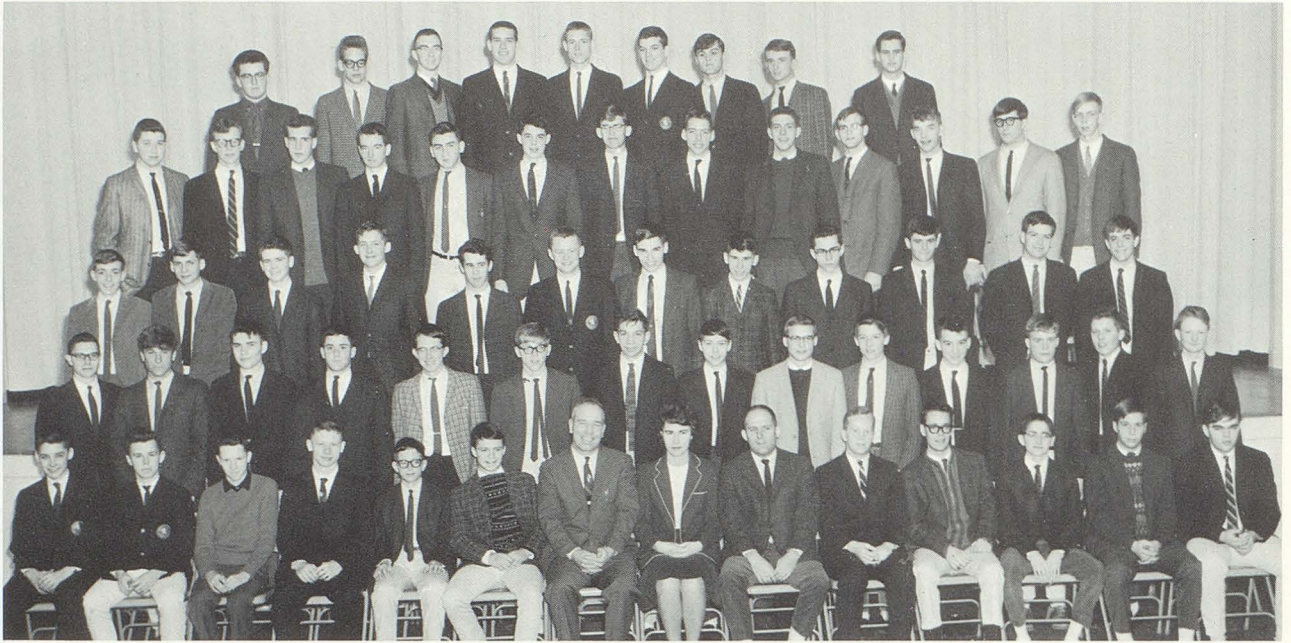

Mr. Brewster contributed much to the organization's success. He often supplemented the regular meetings with movies presented after school. These were obtained from different companies and state agencies interested in problems of conservation and wildlife. They included such films as WATER, THE BASIS OF LIFE AND GREAT ADVENTURES. Each presentation gave us a more complete picture of nature. He also suggested we accompany him on one of his informal odysseys in search of specimens.

However, our main project came as an offer made by a professor at Colby College. A landowner near Step Falls in Newry had agreed to the use of his land as a nature trail. After a little prodding from Mr. Brewster, the professor, who was in charge of the trail, suggested that the Biology Club work in conjunction with his group to make and mark the trail. We decided to have it on an ecological theme -- why each plant grows where it does. Numbered tags were placed near the points of interest to correspond with the numbers on a mimeographed guide sheet. The path had to be maintained and other minor jobs required our assistance. We even envisioned a guided tour for our fellow students.

The knowledge accumulated during our meetings has been of invaluable aid not only in biology but also in our everyday lives. We collected quite a number of pamphlets and books delving into fields often omitted in a general course. This coupled with the fact that we had fun while learning so much made the Biology Club an organization thoroughly enjoyed by its members. Why not join our happy group next year?

OUTING CLUB

The Outing Club is perhaps one of the most popular and populated clubs on campus. It has a full membership of 143 people. The advisors are Mr. Knight, Mr. Brewster, and Miss Littlefield. The officers are president, Thomas Hamilton; vice-president, William McCall; secretary, Jane Look; treasurer, Beverly Shipp.

With trees ablaze in brilliant hues of brown, red, orange, and yellow, Outing Clubbers can be seen on such mountains as Barker, Caribou, and Washington. At Sherwood Forest the Outing Club owns a cabin, which is one of their favorite retreats.

In winter with blankets of white, fluffy snow falling upon the ground, the Outing Club enjoys a day of skiing, tobogganing, or skating. Also in the middle of winter comes the Winter Carnival.

Held in late February, Carnival Weekend was a big success this year, and it was enjoyed by all who attended. Sculptures were well done. They are as follows: seniors, North Wind; juniors, Mad Hatter; sophomores, Humpty Dumpty; and freshmen, Baby Bear.

The athletic events were well attended. All participants did their best in competing for their class.

Last but not least was the coronation, where our own pretty Carol Flint was crowned Carnival Queen. The four princesses were Sarah Burgess, Christina Carswell, Anne Thomas, and Joanne Runyon.

I think this has been a most successful year for the Outing Club. Thanks to the contributions of its members, it has grown a lot and achieved a greater popularity. I think we owe a big thank you to the Outing Club for making this a more successful and enjoyable year.

The Audio-Visual Crew is probably the most unique organization at Gould. It has no dues, and the members are paid for some of the work they perform during the school year. Mr. Jacobs assigns scheduled jobs to members, aside from which, they are free, for the most part, to practice on the equipment or use it for their own enjoyment as they desire.

This year volunteers will be accepted from only the freshman class. They will be instructed by some of the present members who have specialized in the use of certain equipment. About seven of these will be selected to join the crew on the basis of how much they have learned and how well they are able to operate the equipment.

AUDIO-VISUAL CREW

This year the Audio-Visual crew, under the guidance of Mr. Stephen Jacobs, its advisor and director, has been quite active.

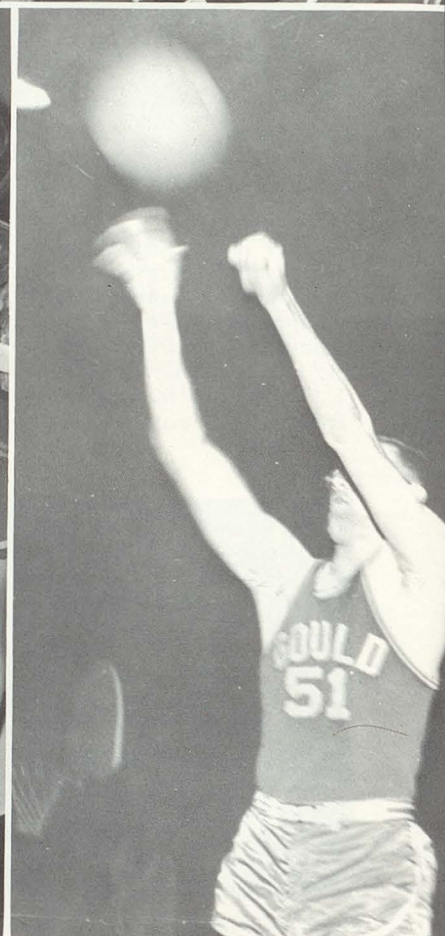

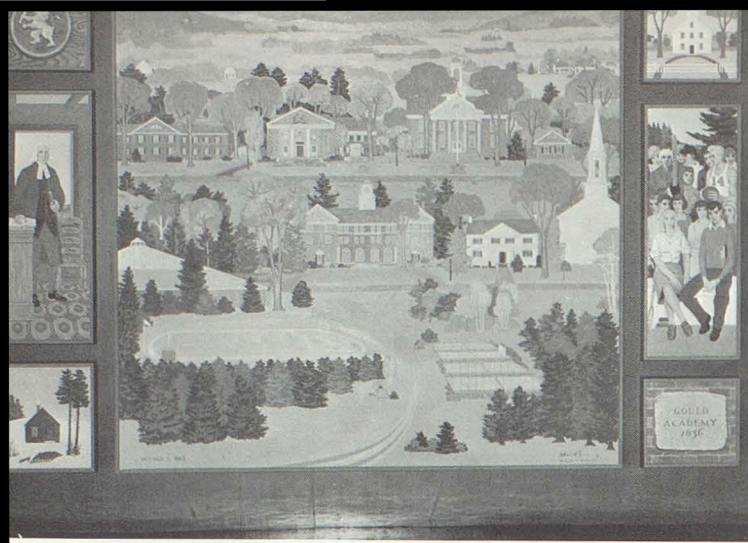

The Audio-Visual Crew provides projectionists for the weekend movies and personnel to operate the lighting and sound systems in Bingham Hall. They also handle most other things on campus requiring the use of the audio-visual equipment.

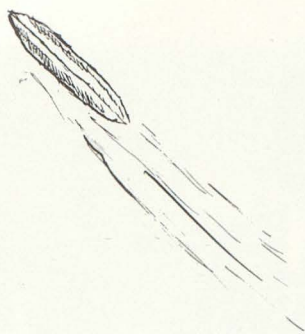

The crew was founded last year with the intention of having students qualified in the use of the school's audio visual equipment available when needed. At that time volunteers were accepted from all classes. They were instructed in the use of the equipment with which they would work in the future. This year some of the members have learned more about the systems that interest them most and have conducted classes to teach the other members what they have learned.

Anderson, Director of Athletics, Mr. Wilbur Myers, Bursar, Mr. Richmond Roderick, Boys' Physical Education Director, and Miss Lucille Brouillard, Girls' Physical Education Director, is responsible for many jobs pertaining to athletics. It estimates budgets, approves all expenditures, reviews, formulates and approves all interscholastic athletic schedules, hires officials for the home games. It also promotes school spirit by sponsoring rallies and bestows letters on the deserving athletes.

The two ex-officio members, who are elected by permanent and elective members, are Mr. Murray W. Thurston, Representative of the Board of Trustees and Mr. Archie Young, Representative of the Alumni Association.

The elective members have one term of office. The elective members of the 1963-1964 council are Joanne Runyon, President of the Girls' Athletic Association, Robert Amrein, Mr. Frank Vogt and Mr. Paul Kailey.

During the 1963-1964 season, letter awards were presented to the following: Robert Amrein, Jack

Every girl enrolled at Gould Academy is an associate member of the organization. She may attend the meetings and take part in all discussions, but will have no voting power or the right to hold office. All girls who have earned ten points and paid 10 cents have full voting power and the right to hold office.

The Association takes part in a series of events during the school year. These events include a welcome tea for all new girls in September, school Halloween Party, Fall and Spring Sports Day, Christmas decorations, weekends, Boys' and Girls' Award Banquets, and Athletic Council Overnight.

The Girls' A. A. plays a large part in maintaining school spirit. It is responsible for the cheerleaders, assists in ski meets, and earns money by selling refreshments at football and basketball games.

The purpose of this organization is to co-operate with the departments of Physical Education in promoting permanent interest in recreation sports, and citizenship and to emphasize sportsmanship, service and school spirit.

The A. A. has established a reputation for doing every job well. Its members are an example of school spirit, sportmanship, and trust which can make every Gould girl proud.

We owe a great deal of thanks to our patient and understanding advisor, Miss Brouillard. Without her help this organization would not be able to function.

With two experienced lines, both on offense and defense, and with only the backfield questionable, Coaches Scott, Kailey, Cousins, and Roderick set about to mold their 1963 team out of about twenty returning lettermen. By switching quarterback Jim Corriveau to left half, putting sophomore Mike Chretien at quarterback, Greg Howe at right half, and Art Hammond at fullback, the question was temporarily solved in the backfield.

On September 21, the new Gould proved their worth, downing Lyndon Institute, 48-0. Corriveau scored three TD's and kicked six extra points; Hammond scored twice and Howe and Atwood once. The "monster defense" (Sam Bartholomew, John Young, and Kevin Wight) and fine downfield blocking brought the Huskies the win.

On the following Saturday Gould squeaked out a 14-6 win over Winthrop at Winthrop. In the second period, after Dennis Wheeler's interception and 40 yard run, the Huskies marched down to the Winthrop one yard line where Corriveau scooted over. Late in the half Gould marched to Winthrop's five yard line, but two TD's were nullified by penalties. In the fourth quarter Corriveau again scored, giving Gould fourteen points. Although Winthrop then scored and threatened again, the defense intercepted another pass and stopped the threat.

On Parent's Day, October 5, the Huskies beat the Sea Gulls of Old Orchard, 14-6. After a scoreless first half, Gould marched 69 yards, climaxed by a touchdown pass from Chretien to Brown. Old Orchard then scored on a pass, climaxing a drive of fifty-five yards. In a do-or-die last quarter, the Huskies, hoping to dedicate the new Bingham Hall with a win, drove to the O.O. eleven yard line, where Corriveau scored on an end run.

Perhaps weakened by the loss of Captain Sam Bartholemew and halfback Greg Howe, the Huskies lost their undefeated status and dropped the next three games to powerful Mexico, Kennebunk, and Lisbon teams.

On October 12 the Huskies traveled to Mexico. Never able to get an attack started, Gould succumbed to an aroused Pinto squad 18-0.

On October 19 Gould lost to the Kennebunk Rams 19-14. Paul Imhof on a 60-yard pass and Corriveau on a 54-yard run scored for the Huskies.

On the 26th of October, Lisbon Greyhounds came to Gould and went home victors 19-7. In the first quarter Gould scored fast on a quarterback sneak by Mike Chretien, but Lisbon came up with the power in the rest of the game.

In the final game of the season with Fryeburg, later to be crowned Class C champs, a spirited, aggressive Gould team won 13-7. Gould's first score came after fine end runs by Corriveau and Hammond, short bursts up the middle by sophomore fullback Ray Atwood, and short passes by Chretien, with Corriveau going the final two yards off tackle.

The second Gould tally came on an end sweep by Corriveau, making the score at halftime 13-0.

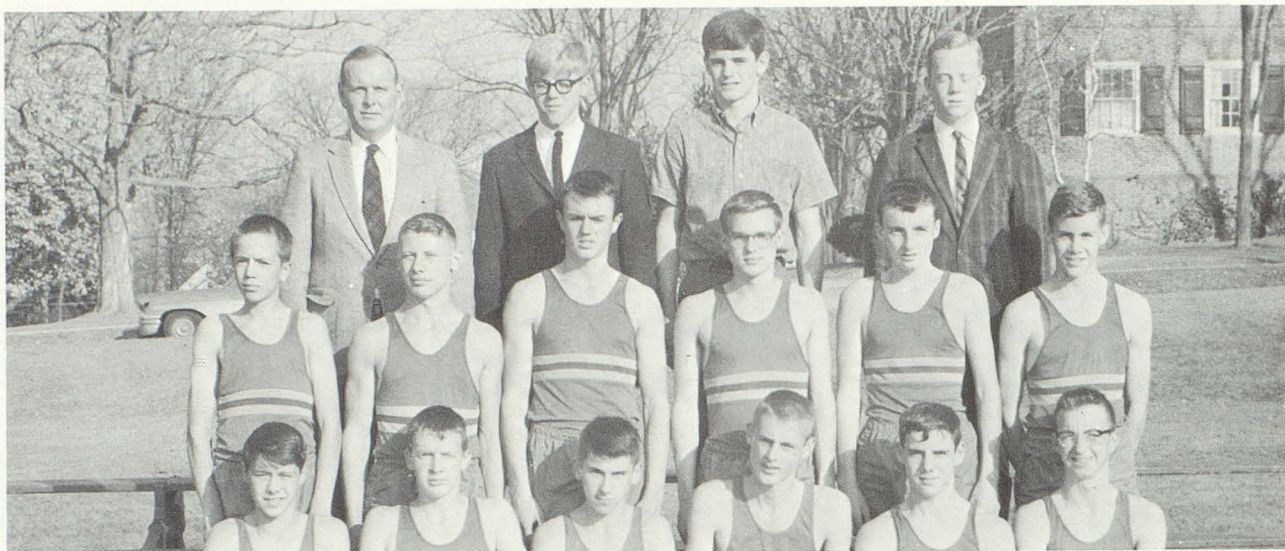

In the third period, the Eagles blocked Corriveau's punt and recovered on the Gould twelve and then scored. Another Gould touchdown bid failed when on fourth down, Corriveau faked a field goal attempt to rifle a pass that just slid off the receiver's fingertips. There were thin anxious moments until the clock ran out. An underrated, jubilant Gould team whipped it up in the locker room. The only sad thought was that we were not able to keep them from being champs as they had us in 1961.

Gould ended its season with a fine 4-3-0 record. Congratulations to the team, coaches, and managers!

At a special letterman's assembly Mr. Anderson announced the formation of a Mountain-Valley League in which Gould will participate next season.

Best of luck to Co-captains Alan Twitchell and Kevin Wight and their 1964 Huskies!

CROSS COUNTRY

The 1963 cross-country team opened the season with the return of three lettermen. These lettermen included Vaughan Damone, Captain Tony Chapman, and Bruce Lane. Others returning from the previous year's squad are Raymond Saunders, Bob Bartholomev Paul Knight, John Lombard, Andy Buck, and Boyd Lane. New members included Warren Tibbetts, Dave Carter, Jack Brooks, Dave Kibbe, and Steve Moore. The managers were Phil Martin and Daryl Marcy.

Mr. Vogt, the coach, had the boys doing a lot of strenuous exercises along with a lot of hard over-distance running. As defending champion of the Western Maine Conference, the team had to be in top condition to defeat their opponents.

On September 26 Gould had a triangular meet with Oxford Hills and Fryeburg at Fryeburg. It was a very good showing with Gould holding nine places out of the first twelve. Vaughan Damone, that speedy little sophomore, placed first.

The second meet of the season was a three-way meet at Gould with Mexico and Bridgton as opponents. The score: Gould, 32; Mexico, 32; and Bridgton, 57. The Gould finishers were as follows: Damone (1), Buck (5), Lane (7), Lombard (9), and Chapman (10).

In one of the most thrilling races of the season, Gould came through with a 28 to 27 win over Hebron Academy. The victory was clinched when Bruce Lane and Andy Buck flashed by a Hebron runner in the last fifty yards of the race to place fourth and fifth. For Vaughn Damone it was his sixth straight race in which he placed first. His time was 13:33 for the 2.3 mile course.

On November 5th the Gould Academy harriers won the Western Maine Conference title. They ran against five teams which included Hebron, Fryeburg, Oxford Hills, Mechanic Falls, and Bridgton. Led by the record breaking time of Vaughan Damone, the Gould team edged Mexico, the second placer, 46-50.

On October 31st at Orono the State Cross-Country meet was held. The Gould team placed fourth in a field of thirty schools with Vaughan Damone finishing sixth out of about two-hundred boys.

Undeclared in six schedule meets, Gould Academy's runners had victories over Oxford Hills, Bridgton, Portland, Fryeburg, Hebron, and Mechanic Falls. They were tied by the Pintos of Mexico. One of the big factors in Gould's success was Vaughan Damone, who finished first in all six meets. Other scorers for Gould during the season were Captain Tony Chapman, Bruce Lane, Andy Buck, John Lombard, and Raymond Saunders. With all these men returning for another year, next year should prove victorious.

SKI TEAM

Early in November candidates for the ski team, under the direction of Coach Kailey, Assistant Coach Barth, and Co-captains Greg Howe and Jim Corriveau, were out running long distances and playing soccer and football to get in shape for the season. Though hampered by the lack of snow, the team made a good showing this year by finishing third in every meet, except in the New England's, in which the team placed sixth.

The first meet was the Edward Little Carnival, January 25 and 26, which was held at Gould because of the lack of snow in Auburn. Bob Amrein won the cross-country by a good margin and placed fourth in the giant slalom for Gould's best places. The jumping was not held. Edward Little had the highest team score.

The next meet with Hanover, Rumford, and Kennett was also held at Gould. Hanover won the team scoring with Rumford second, and Gould third. Jim Corriveau won both Alpine events with Bob Amrein taking a sixth in the giant slalom and a seventh in the slalom. Donny Young placed eighth and seventh in these respective events to also score for the team. In the cross-country Bob Amrein was Gould's first finisher with a tenth. Greg Howe, third, and Alan Chapman, seventh, scored for the Huskies in the jumping.

On February 7 and 8 the State Meet was held at Rumford. Rumford beat Edward Little for the top spot with Gould again taking third out of seven teams entered. Jim Corriveau won both individual honors in the Alpine events with other Gould finishers as follows: Slalom -- Bob Amrein, eighth; Donny Young, ninth; Steve Moore, fifteenth. Giant Slalom -- Donny Young, seventh; Bob Amrein, eighth; Jack Brooks, twelfth. In the Nordic events, Bob Amrein finished eighth, Greg Howe eleventh, and Ray Saunders thirteenth in the cross-country, with Greg Howe placing ninth in the jumping for Gould's best scorer in this event.

The New England meet was held at Gould this year and was said to be one of the best run New England meets ever. Out of ten teams Gould placed sixth with Rumford winning their first New England Championship. Individual scoring for Gould was as follows: Giant Slalom -- Jim Corriveau, seventh; Bob Amrein, twelfth; Jack Brooks, sixteenth. Slalom -- Jim Corriveau, second; Bob Amrein, tenth; Jack Brooks, twenty-fourth. Cross-Country -- Greg Howe, sixteenth; Jim Corriveau, twentieth; Ray Saunders, twenty-first; Bob Amrein, twenty-second. Jumping -- Greg Howe, eleventh; Ray Saunders, thirty-second; Alan Chapman, thirty-third.

Congratulations to Jim Corriveau for making the Junior Nationals at Squaw Valley this year, and Ray Saunders, captain-elect, for next year!

BASKETBALL

With the same team except for two players and one coach (we gained Mr. Hillier), Gould's basketball team had a winning season. The two outstanding players of the year were Paul Imhof and David Brewster. Paul, co-captain of the team with Dale Stevens, is a good ball handler, his forte being the long drive and lay-up. Dave, better known as Wendy, was the driving spark for the team, taking time to set up plays and then executing them. Dave in his first year at Gould has proven himself to be a good basketball player.

The results of the games are as follows:

Varsity		J.V.
Levitt	won 72-70	lost 56-48
Bridgton	won 53-52	lost 42-40
At Mexico	lost 76-61	lost 51-43

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The boys ended the best year in a long time, defeating Western Maine Conference champions, Mexico, 49-45 in an overtime. The team had an excellent season with an 8-5 for the Varsity and 4-9 for the J.V.

The support given to the team by the crowds would be sufficient respect due to most teams, but there is no doubt that there should be given a little more to our team for such an excellent showing this year.

BASEBALL

The Gould baseball team started off the 1964 season with very high prospects. The only rookies on the team were George Nickerson and Chris Unger. The rest of the team had seen previous action on the varsity and were well adapted to playing together by the time the first game rolled around.

After being rained out with Mexico, the Gould nine traveled to Oxford Hill where they met a 3 to 2 defeat. Our next meeting which was looked anxiously forward to by the team members was rained out, and due to a conflict in schedule it was unable to be made up.

The only other team that gave us trouble was Berlin which had a nearly perfect record. We lost both games with this powerful club.

Gould was blessed with an extremely powerful team. Home runs by Matt Brooks -- 1, Dale Stevens -- 1, Don Nowlin -- 2, Don Young -- 2, Mike Chretien -- 1, and many extra base-hits helped the team run up some very high scores. Evidence of these slaughters were the Bridgton game and the Notre Dame game which we won 26 to 3 and 25 to 3 respectively.

Fine pitching by Matt Brooks and Don Nowlin contributed greatly to our winning season. Dennis Wheeler, who had a seasonal hitting streak, won the batting crown with a 441 average.

Gould's prospects look good for next year with the return of six lettermen. They will be losing capable players -- Captain Matt Brooks, Dale Stevens, Don Nowlin, Don Young, and Tim Ramage. However, a strong J.V. team coached by Mr. Berry should provide good depth for next year's team.

We would all like to thank our very capable manager "Cecil" Goodrich for his ability in keeping the equipment in shape and the team in high spirits. We wish Coach Bowhay and next year's team the best of luck. Next year's captain-elect is Randy Chretien.

TRACK

The 1964 season was faced with optimism by the Gould Track Team and coaches. The team looked strong and an undefeated season was not unreasonable to hope for.

This hope was soon shattered when Rumford upset the Huskies 68-58. High scorer for Gould was Art Hammond, who captured the broad jump 100 and 220. Other Gould winners were Saunders (tie pole vault), Howe (high jump), Damone (mile and 880) and Brown (440).

Gould went into their next meet, at home with Oxford Hills and Mechanic Falls, less confident and more anxious for a win to regain their pride. An easy victory was achieved and nearly everyone scored a few points. Winners were Damone (mile and 880), Saunders (polevault), Hammond (100, high and broadjumps), Wight (shot), Bartholomew (discus) and Brown (440). The score was G.A. 103, O.H. 45 and M.F. 14.

The Gould thinclads next met and easily overwhelmed Farmington 101-25. Hammond, Brown, Damone and Wight were the high point men. Sweeps were registered by the Huskies in the discus, shot put, high jump, javelin, 440 and broad jump.

In the County Meet Gould edged out Rumford and left all other schools trailing to bring home a long sought trophy. Top scorers were Hammond (1st in 100, 220, and broad jump) and Damone (1st in mile and 880). Other winners were Bennett (javelin), Lane (triple jump) and Brown (440).

The Gould tracksters captured the first Mountain-Valley League Meet to add still another trophy to our credit. The participating schools and their scores were Gould, 96; Wilton, 46; Mexico, 26; Farmington, 24 1/2; Jay, 13 1/2 and Hall-Dale, 2. Gould winners were Lane (broad jump), Kibbe (high hurdles), Damone (mile and 880) and Brown (440).

Under a proved head-of-steam Gould roared on to the Andy Valley Meet. We were handily upset by both Brunswick and Edward Little. Good performances were turned in by Damone and Hammond, who were backed by a good team effort.

The two week lay-off, enjoyed by the Gould athletes between the Andy Valley Meet and the State Meet in Portland, proved to be their undoing. Many Gould men did not produce peak performances. Scorers for Gould, their positions and events are as follows: -- Brown 3rd high hurdles, 2nd 440; Damone, 3rd mile; Land, 3rd broad jump; Bartholomew, 4th discus and Wight, 5th discus.

Coach "Joe" Roderick should enjoy another winning team next year.

Best of Luck,
Corey Brown '64

Eighth Honors -- Elizabeth Thompson

Ninth Honors -- Judy Judkins

Tenth Honors -- Susan French

Many other awards were given for Camera Club, BLUE and GOLD, HERALD, debating, music, Latin, Girls' A.A., track and baseball.

Following these exercises, the seniors traveled to Thompson Pond where they enjoyed an all-day outing.

The Alumni Luncheon was held in the William Bingham Gymnasium Saturday, June 6, at 12:30 P.M. The speaker was Miss Margaret Joy Tibbetts, a 1937 Gould graduate, now a United States Ambassador. This was followed by an Alumni-Varsity baseball game, won by the Varsity, 6-2, and the Headmaster's Tea. The day was brought to a close by the Commencement Ball for all classes and Alumni.

On Sunday, June 7, at 10:00 A.M., Baccalaureate Services were held in the West Parish Congregational Church. The speaker was the Reverend William M. Thompson of Portland, Minister of the Congregational-Christian Conference of Maine.

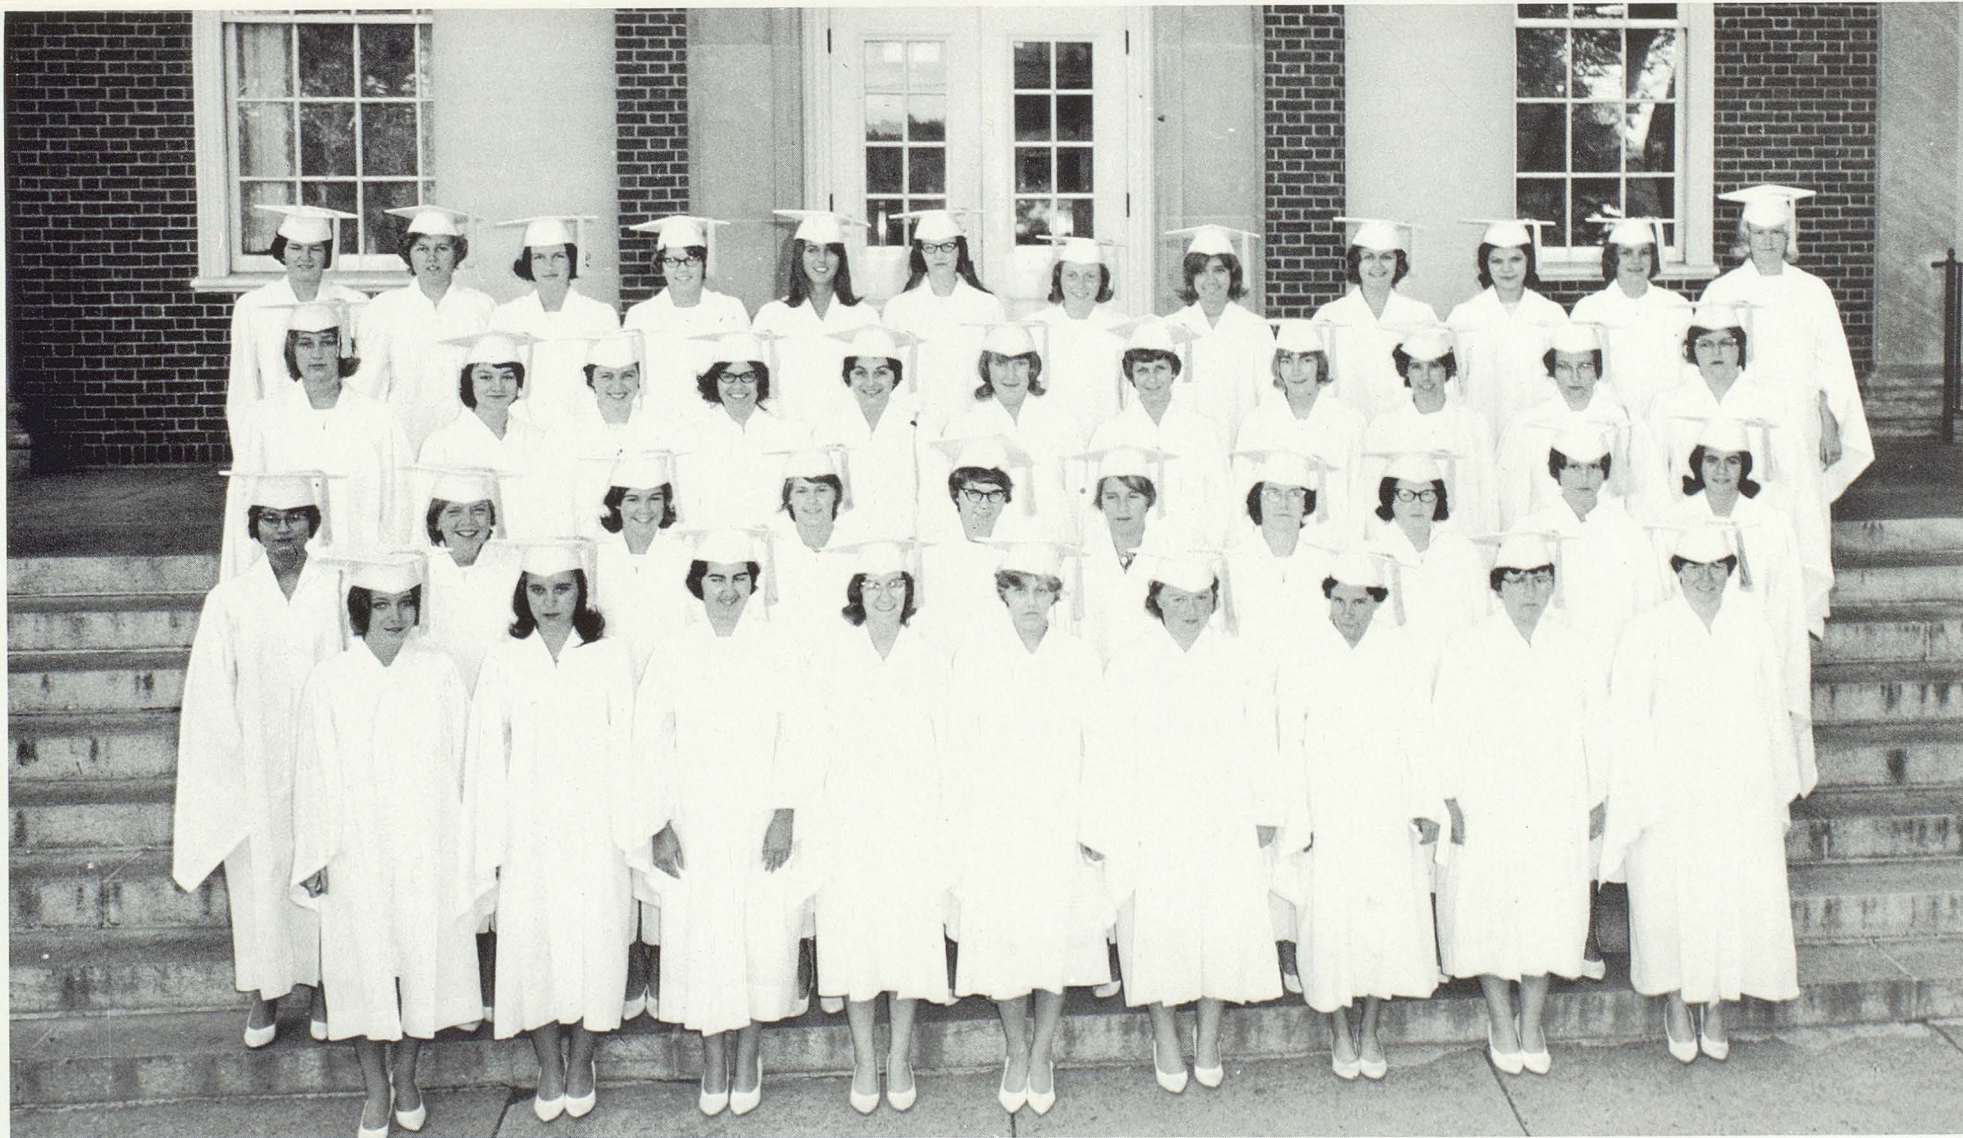

At 2:00 that afternoon, the Commencement exercises began as the 1964 Senior Class marched into the auditorium to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance." After the invocation by the Reverend Donald F. Hess, the Varsity Glee Club sang "Once to Every Man and Nation." Louise Delano delivered the salutatory essay which Carol Flint followed with "Prelude and Fugue in B Flat Major" on the organ. After this, Doctor Sidney W. Davidson introduced the Commencement speaker, Major General James D. Alger, Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations, Department of the Army, whose theme was "The Challenge." The Varsity Glee Club then sang "Halls of Ivy" and Joel Nichols presented the valedictory essay. Then came the announcement of honors by Mr. Vachon, and the awarding of diplomas by Dr. Davidson. The benediction by the Reverend Clifford W. Laws, and the recessional played by Mr. E. Ward Steady brought an end to Gould school-days for the Class of 1964.

ALUMNI NOTES

Donald Bachelder enlisted in the Navy after graduating. He is now stationed in Washington D.C. Others who are serving Uncle Sam are A3C Delma McMillin, Pvt. Dale Kimball, and Brian McCrodden. Delma is serving at the F. E. Warren Air Force Base in Wyoming. He is in the Combat Defense where he guards missiles. Dale is studying Engineering Equipment Maintenance at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. Brian is at the United States Military Academy, West Point. He plans to be in the Army Corps of Engineers when he is through. He has been on the Dean's List and made the ski team.

John Bartash is studying at the University of Rhode Island in the college of Pharmacy, for he would like to be a pharmacist. Bruce Moulton of Norwich University writes that he is majoring in biology with the intention of taking up medicine. Judith Myers is a student of nursing at the Massachusetts General Hospital. Judy was chosen to be on the Student-Faculty Relationship Committee.

Beverly Bryant is displaying her talents at Gorham State Teachers College in the course of Music Education. Verna Philbrook is at the Virginia Intermont College, Bristol, Virginia. She is in the field of fine arts.

Tom Chadbourne is attending Bridgton Academy this year; however, in the fall of 1964 he will be entering Bates College to study business administration. Caroline Ogg is studying to be a lawyer's secretary at Katherine Gibbs School but is moving to Chicago in June. Mary Lee Gunn is at Fisher Junior College, where she is training to be a medical secretary. Julia Brown and Albert Grover are at Gray's Business College in Portland. Julia is taking the secretarial course while Al is taking the accounting and business course. Jean Gillespie is a clerk in an insurance company. For a change of pace, she will enter a nursing school in September of 1964.

Freda Bennett is attending Pelletier's School of Beauty Culture.

Stephen McLain writes that he is working hard to help Smoky the Bear in the U.S. Forest Service.

Diana Weatherby and Stephen Dock are going to Colby College. Diane is studying history. Steve is a French major. He received an honor mark in the January Plan (a month of independent study) on the subject, "Description and Symbolism in Music." Trafton Foster is showing his love for history by majoring in it at Michigan State University. He desires to be a college history professor. David Miller, a Wesleyan University student, is majoring in English while minoring in art. He plans to be a photographer during the summer. David Gardner reports that he is attending the American University. Ileen Powers attends Farmington State Teachers College. She is majoring in Junior high-elementary education. Sandra White is going to Skidmore College to study Biology. Sandy made the freshman chorus. Daniel Grover, who plans to be an electrical engineer, is taking technological-electrical engineering at the University of Maine. Last but not least, Karen Langley writes from Lasell Junior College that she is taking courses in child study. Her three ambitions are to work with children, go to Norway and get married!
